Plaintiff.

MOTION FOR TEMPORARY EMERGENCY CUSTODY

Amanda Woodall, Defendant.

COMES NOW the Plaintiff, by and through counsel, pursuant to Chapter 50 of the Cherokee Code and Chapter 50-13.5 and Chapter 50A of the North Carolina General Statutes, and MOVES the Court for Custody of the minor child and for an Emergency Custody Order upon the following grounds:

1. That the Plaintiff is a citizen and resident of the Qualla Boundary, Cherokee, North Carolina and has been for a period of six months next preceding the commencement of this action.
2. That the Defendant is, upon information and belief, a resident of Sevier County, Tennessee.
3. That the Parties are the biological parents of a minor child, namely Shania Woodall, (D.O.B. [REDACTED] 2015) who is the subject of this action.
4. That the physical and legal custody of the minor child is governed by an Order dated February 2, 2024, from this Court awarding the Defendant legal and physical custody and the Plaintiff legal and physical visitation.
5. That this Court has personal jurisdiction over all parties and the minor child in this matter.
6. That this Court has subject matter jurisdiction.
7. That this Court is the proper venue for this matter.

8. That the minor child has lived at the following addresses since the entry of the prior Order: [REDACTED] Sevierville, Tennessee, 37862.
9. The Qualla Boundary and the State of North Carolina are the Home State of the minor child, and this Court continues to have jurisdiction pursuant to the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Enforcement Act.
10. That the Plaintiff has no information of any other pending custody proceeding concerning the minor children, except as otherwise stated herein.
11. That the Plaintiff knows of no other person, not a party to these proceedings, who has physical custody of the minor child, or who claims to have custody or visitation rights with respect to the minor child.
12. That emergency temporary custody of the minor child to the Plaintiff is warranted for the following reasons:
 - a. That the Defendant is purposefully evading the jurisdiction of this Court, as well as the courts of the State of North Carolina.
 - b. The Defendant has failed to appear despite an Order to Show Cause regarding her contempt for this Court's Order of February 2, 2024.
 - c. Since the Contempt Hearing held on or about April 16, 2025, the Defendant has argued, by and through counsel, that she is not subject to the Contempt powers of this Court and has argued that little can be done to compel her to comply with any order emanating from this Court.
 - d. The Defendant has never complied with this Court's Order of February 2, 2024, in providing contact information for the minor child, providing educational records for the minor child, giving the names of medical providers of the minor child or keeping the Plaintiff apprised of the condition and status of the minor child.
 - e. The Defendant has purposefully withheld the minor child from the Plaintiff and has never complied with any of the visitation provisions of this Court's Order of February 2, 2024.
 - f. Since the Contempt Hearing on or about April 16, 2025, the Plaintiff has been forced to obtain a Domestic Violence Protective Order ("DVPO") against the Defendant in Jackson County, North Carolina District Court, File No. 25CV500011-490 which was entered by the Honorable Kaleb Wingate on June 2, 2025. (See Attached Exhibit 1)

- g. The Defendant failed to appear for the DVPO hearing but was represented by counsel whom she had retained. The Defendant argued that North Carolina does not have jurisdiction to enter a DVPO against her.
- h. The Defendant violated the DVPO within the first week of its entry and a warrant for that violation has been issued, 25CR330187-490. Upon information and belief, this warrant has been delivered to the Sevier County, TN Sheriff's Office but has not yet been served. A second violation of the DVPO was issued on or about August 11, 2025.
- i. Since the Contempt Hearing, the Cherokee Indian Police Department has issued 10 Felony Warrants for the Defendant's arrest.
- j. Upon information and belief, the Defendant has knowledge of some or all of the pending charges as she has filed a Motion to Amend the DVPO in Jackson County by and through counsel and specifically references a Perjury Warrant.
- k. Upon information and belief, the Sevier County Sheriff's Office attempted to serve the warrants on the Defendant but was told that the Defendant is now in Georgia and not in Tennessee.
- l. The Defendant has made multiple social media posts stating that she will never comply with the Court's Orders and that she will never allow the minor child to see the Plaintiff, in addition, the Defendant has made a social media post that she has been advised to not return to the Qualla Boundary until she is legally compelled to do so. (See Attached 2)
- m. The Defendant, upon information and belief, has stopped taking the minor child to her therapy sessions at Analanisgi as ordered by this Court in the February 2, 2024 order.
- n. On or about July 24, 2025, the Court found the Defendant in Contempt and ordered her to disclose the location of herself and the child by July 29, 2025. The information was provided by and through Defendant's counsel on August 2, 2025.
- o. Multiple attempts have been made to ascertain the location of the minor child and the Defendant has willfully refused to disclose her location to the Plaintiff despite multiple court orders requiring the most basic information about the Plaintiff's daughter.
- p. The Defendant was ordered by this Court to present the child for visitation on August 8, 2025 at 6:00 p.m. The Plaintiff appeared at the South Carolina Welcome Center in Fair Play, South Carolina prior to 6:00 p.m. and waited for approximately 1 hour but the Defendant failed to present the child for the ordered visitation.

13. Because the child has been removed from this jurisdiction for the purposes of evading this Court's jurisdiction, an Order for Temporary Emergency Custody is warranted.
14. That the Plaintiff is a fit and proper person to exercise sole custody of the minor child and to provide a safe and stable home.
15. That the Plaintiff is a fit and proper person to be awarded full and sole physical and legal custody of the minor child, and an Order for custody of the minor child is warranted.
16. That it is in the best interest of the minor child that the Plaintiff is granted physical and legal custody of the minor child.
17. That the Defendant should not be granted visitation with the minor child based upon her alienation and failure to comply with prior Orders, until further order of this Court.

WHEREFORE, premises considered, the Plaintiff prays this Honorable Court for the following relief:

1. That the Plaintiff be granted Temporary Emergency Custody of the minor child until further review of this matter;
2. That the Defendant not be awarded visitation with the minor child until further review by this Court.
3. That the Plaintiff be awarded sole legal and physical custody of the minor child.
4. That this Court issue a Warrant for the immediate pickup of the minor child, Shania Woodall, d/o/b [REDACTED] 2015.
5. That the Plaintiff be awarded their reasonable attorney's fees.
6. That the costs of this action be taxed to the Defendant.
7. For such other and further relief to which the Court may deem just and proper.

This the 13th day of August, 2025.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'David D. Moore', written over a horizontal line.

NOTICE TO PARTIES

TO THE DEFENDANT:

1. If this Order prohibits you from possessing, receiving or purchasing a firearm and you violate or attempt to violate that provision, you may be charged with a Class H felony pursuant to North Carolina G.S. 14-269.8 and may be imprisoned for up to 39 months.
2. If you have been ordered to surrender your firearms, ammunition, and gun permits and you fail to surrender them as required by this Order, or if you failed to disclose to the Court all information requested about possession of these items, or provided false information to the Court about any of these items, you may be charged with a Class H felony and may be imprisoned for up to 39 months. If you surrendered your firearms, ammunition, and permits, you may file a motion for the return of weapons with the clerk of court in the county in which this Order was entered when the protective order is no longer in effect, except if at the time this Order expires, criminal charges, in either state or federal court, are pending against you and are alleged to have been committed against the person who is protected by this Order, you may not file for return of the firearms until final disposition of the criminal charges. The form, "Motion For Return Of Weapons Surrendered Under Domestic Violence Protective Order" AOC-CV-319, is available from the clerk of court's office. The motion must be filed not later than 90 days after the expiration of the Order that required you to surrender the firearms or if you have pending criminal charges alleged to have been committed against the person who is protected by the domestic violence protection order, the motion must be filed not later than 90 days after final disposition of the criminal charges. At the time you file the motion, the clerk will schedule a hearing before the district court for a judge to determine whether to return the surrendered weapons to you. The sheriff cannot return your weapons unless the Court orders the sheriff to do so. You must pay the sheriff's storage fee before the sheriff returns your weapon. If you fail to file a motion for return of the weapons within 90 days after the expiration of this Order, or the final disposition of criminal charges pending at the time this Order expired, or if you fail to pay the storage fees within 30 days after the Court enters an order to return your weapons, the sheriff may seek an order from the Court to dispose of your weapons.

TO THE PLAINTIFF:

1. You should keep a copy of this protective order on you at all times and should make copies to give to your friends and family. If you move to another county or state, you may wish to give a copy to the law enforcement agency where you move, but you are not required to do so.
2. The court or judge is the only one that can make changes to this order. If you wish to change any of the terms of this order, you must come back into court to have the judge modify the order.
3. If the defendant violates any provision of this order, you may call a law enforcement officer or go to a magistrate to charge the defendant with the crime of violating a protective order. You also may go to the clerk of court's office in the county where the protective order was issued and ask to fill out form AOC-CV-307, Motion For Order To Show Cause Domestic Violence Protective Order, to have an order issued for the defendant to appear before a district court judge to be held in contempt for violating the order.

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE WHEN DEFENDANT NOT PRESENT AT HEARING

TEMPORARY CHILD CUSTODY ADDENDUM TO DOMESTIC VIOLENCE PROTECTIVE ORDER
(must be attached to Domestic Violence Order of Protection)

NOTE TO THE JUDGE: G.S. 50B-3(a1) provides that "[u]pon the request of either party at a hearing after notice or service of process, the court shall consider and may award temporary custody of minor children and establish temporary visitation rights [...]" The court shall base its decision on the best interest of the child with particular consideration given to the safety of the child.

FINDINGS

- 1. The defendant requested custody and gave proper notice of this request to the plaintiff.
- 2. The parties are the parents of the following children under the age of eighteen (18). The child(ren) are presently in the physical custody of the plaintiff defendant. The plaintiff defendant has submitted an "Affidavit As To Status Of Minor Child," which is incorporated by reference into this Order. NOTE TO JUDGE: A copy of AOC-CV-609 for each child must be attached to the order.

Name	Sex	Date Of Birth	Name	Sex	Date Of Birth

- 3. The following statutory factors were raised by the evidence and the Court makes the following findings based on the evidence presented. (Check only those factors for which evidence was presented and make findings regarding the evidence presented for those factors.)
 - "Whether the minor child was exposed to a substantial risk of physical or emotional injury or sexual abuse." Findings:
 - "Whether the minor child was present during acts of domestic violence." Findings:
 - "Whether a weapon was used or threatened to be used during any act of violence." Findings:
 - "Whether a party caused or attempted to cause serious bodily injury to the aggrieved party or minor child." Findings:
 - "Whether a party placed the aggrieved party or the minor child in reasonable fear of imminent serious bodily injury." Findings:
 - "Whether a party caused an aggrieved party to engage involuntarily in sexual relations by force, threat or duress." Findings:
 - "Whether there is a pattern of abuse against the aggrieved party or minor child." Findings:

(Over)

FINDINGS (continued)

- "Whether a party has abused or endangered the minor child during visitation." Findings:

- "Whether a party has used visitation as an opportunity to abuse or harass the aggrieved party." Findings:

- "Whether a party has improperly concealed or detained the minor child." Findings:

- "Whether a party has otherwise acted in a manner that is not in the best interest of the minor child." Findings:

- 4. Other findings as to whether it is in the best interest of the child(ren) that custody be awarded with particular consideration given to the safety of the child(ren):

CONCLUSIONS

- 1. The Court has jurisdiction under the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction And Enforcement Act.
- 2. It is in the best interest of the minor child(ren) that temporary custody be given to plaintiff. defendant. [08] and that the defendant plaintiff be granted visitation.
- 3. The Court concludes that temporary custody should not be awarded at this time.

ORDER

Therefore it is ORDERED that:

- 1. Temporary custody of the minor child(ren) named on Side One is granted to plaintiff. defendant.
- 2. The defendant plaintiff is entitled to visitation under the terms listed below:
 - a. supervised visitation as follows: (specify the person or agency providing supervision, the location, frequency, and length of visitation)

OR

- unsupervised visitation as follows: (specify the location, frequency and length of visitation)

- b. (name person) _____ shall be responsible for transportation of the minor child(ren) to visitation and (name person) _____ shall be responsible for transportation of the minor child(ren) from visitation. The exchange at the start of visitation shall occur at (name location) _____ and the exchange at the conclusion of visitation shall occur at (name location) _____.
- c. Other:

- 3. Temporary custody is not awarded.
- 4. The order is effective until (give date which cannot be longer than one year) _____
